No details were published of the organizations which were merged into the Ministry of Agriculture & Procurements, but the Ministry as such was mentioned and the Minister was appointed on the 15th August 1953. If that merger follows the pattern of the USSR reorganization, it should represent the merger of the following: Ministry of Agriculture, Ministry of State Farms and the Ministry of Forestry.

On the 18th September 1953, the Ministry of State Farms was re-established separately again in the USSR and it was announced that a similar change would be made in the RSFSR.

Notably, the Session of the Supreme Council RSFSR of August 27th 1953, mentioned no Decree merging the Ministry of Light Ind. with the Ministry of Food Ind. (which had taken place in the USSR Government but was subsequently amended by the re-establishment of the Ministry of Food Industry USSR on Sept. 18th 1953 and the creation of the Ministry of Manufactured Consumer Goods, the latter comprising the same functions as those of the Ministry of Light Industry until the merger Decree of 15.3.53.
